On June 22, 2011 the Fayette County Sheriff's Office began investigating a theft case which involved an unknown person(s) stealing aerial phone cable in north Fayette County. Since that time the Fayette County Sheriff's Office has taken four (4) additional reports which involve the theft of aerial phone cable. These Five (5) theft cases exceed $20,000.00 in losses by the victim.

All five (5) of these theft cases are similar in nature and are occurring in the same remote area of north Fayette County. Two (2) of the thefts have occurred on Ellison Road while the other three (3) on Sandy Creek Road. Fayette Investigators do not currently have any leads surrounding these thefts.

Fayette County Sheriff's Investigators are asking for assistance from the community on these five (5) theft cases. If anyone has any information which will help investigators in these cases they are urged to contact Investigator Aaron Fenimore at 770-716-4761 or email afenimore@fayettecountyga.gov.
